

Personal Care

at Passavant Community

Imagine waking up each morning to a new day filled with companionship and a little extra help when you need it. Passavant Community's personal care services deliver just that.

When you need personal care, you'll have full access to everything that appeals to you most and individualized assistance with daily tasks.

Get help with breakfast, bathing and laundry right before heading over to the creative arts studio. Or, take part in the many activities happening in and around our campus with friends.

Your zest for life didn't fade when your individual needs changed. Let us sustain that passion with the freedom and support you deserve.
